D. Problem Solving and Teaching

For the following questions, there are NO right or wrong answers. Each person handles various situations in their own way. Just think about the scenario and record how you would suggest handling the circumstances. Please write your answers on a separate piece of paper.

Situation I - There is a Daughters of the Nile Temple that seems to have problems making quorum each month at Stated Sessions, getting new members to join and filling the Officers' Stations. They have asked the Action Team for help. What would you think would be your first step towards helping this Temple?

Situation II - A Daughters of the Nile Temple is showing signs of having some difficulties. After talking with many of the Members, you find two women within this Temple are feuding over something that happened outside of the Temple and their feud is causing dissention within the Temple. What would you do to resolve this problem?

Situation III - A Temple has a slate of Officers who are all fairly new to Daughters of the Nile. They need you to design a class to give them some basic understanding about their duties as Officers. Design an outline for the topics you would cover with these officers and list all references you would use to teach this class.
